Music on the Lawn 2010

Tuesdays, June & July, 7:30-8:30 pm

Celebrating 25 years! Bring your blankets & your picnic baskets and relax on the Library's lawn for summer fun & music!

- June 1: Billy Zenn & The Ringers (Rock & Blues)
Steeped in vintage blues, rock & soul, this awesome band kicks off the series with its special brand of American music.
- June 8: Arnett Howard's Band (Creole Funk)
Danceable rhythm & blues for the entire family! Hear the best Creole funk this side of New Orleans with Columbus favorite Arnett Howard.
- June 15: The Randys (Retro Pop & Soul)
This fun, 5-piece band plays songs from the '50s & '60s with an eclectic flair, from blue-eyed soul to traditional Spanish numbers.
- June 22: Sean Carney Band (Blues)
Hear top-shelf blues from Columbus's celebrated guitarist Sean Carney and his amazing band—2007 International Blues Challenge winners!
- June 29: The Conspiracy Band (R&B/Funk)
This high-energy group always gets the crowd moving! Hailed as "The Mayor's Band" and "Columbus's Band" (Columbus Monthly), The Conspiracy Band is a favorite for all ages.
- July 6: The British Invasion ('60s Music)
More than just a Beatles tribute, this popular band covers music from English groups of the 1960s—The Animals, The Rolling Stones, Herman's Hermits—and performs a special Sgt. Pepper's Beatles set!
- July 13: Dean Marcellana & Clave Sonic (Latin Jazz)
Grandview's own Dean Marcellana and his band will delight you with outstanding jazz infused with a tropical flavor!
- July 20: General Guinness Band (Irish)
For nearly 30 years, this traditional Irish band has been wowing audiences with rich ballads, energetic fiddle tunes, and Irish step dancing. Great fun for all ages!
- July 27: Sons of Gladys (Elvis Tribute)
Finish the summer with a Vegas-style tribute to Elvis Presley. Performing big numbers from the King's later years, this band features a horn section, backup singers, and an amazing Elvis impersonator!

There is no rain location. Call the Library at 614-486-2951 after 6 pm concerning possible cancellation due to weather.

Water Your Mind—READ! Let the Library be your garden of readin’ this summer! We have rows and rows of the season’s freshest books & audio-books ripe for the picking. And, we’re giving away a cornucopia of prizes. Feast your eyes on The Grapes of Wrath or Fried Green Tomatoes and cultivate your chance to win!

Staycation in Japan: Japanese Film Festival

Mondays, June 7—28, 6:30 pm

“What I did this summer: Went to the Japanese Film Festival at the Grandview Library. Was attacked & robbed by a crazed bandit. (Jerk stole my credit card.) Shared a few drinks with a lovely bar hostess. (She was into me.) Fell in love...with a ghost. And what summer would be complete without a wedding?” This could be your postcard! See exotic Japan from the comfort of the Grandview Library. Join staffer Chris Boerger for these outstanding films from the Land of the Rising Sun.

- June 7: Rashomon (1950)
Four witnesses report differing accounts of a heinous crime. Considered one of director Akira Kurosawa’s masterpieces.
- June 14: When a Woman Ascends the Stairs (1960)
A bar hostess must choose between marriage and independence. Directed by Mikio Naruse.
- June 21: Ugetsu (1953)
Two ambitious peasants seek their fortunes during a 16th century civil war. Director Kenji Mizoguchi’s celebrated work.
- June 28: Late Spring (1949)
A woman struggles with marriage pressures and her father’s care. Considered one of director Yasujiro Ozu’s finest films.

* All movies are shown in large-screen digital projection, and start promptly at 6:30 pm.

The Suspense is Killing You: Alfred Hitchcock Film Festival

Mondays, August 2—30 (except August 16), 6:30 pm

Do mysteries excite you? Stories of espionage, maybe? Abduction? How about...murder? One of the most popular & critically-acclaimed film directors of all time, Alfred Hitchcock created exquisite horror films for thrill-seeking audiences. “Give them pleasure,” he said. “The same pleasure they have when they wake up from a nightmare.” Join staffer Chris Boerger for a collection of classic thrillers from the master of suspense.

- August 2: The Lady Vanishes (1938)
A socialite searches for a missing woman whom fellow train passengers claim never existed.
- August 9: Shadow of a Doubt (1943)
A young woman suspects her beloved uncle is a serial killer. Hitchcock’s favorite of his films.
- August 16: “Taking a week off. Not doing so would be murder.”

- August 23: Notorious (1946)
Three lives become entangled during an espionage operation involving Nazis, uranium, and South America. Starring Cary Grant and Ingrid Bergman.
- August 30: Rear Window (1954)
A nosy, homebound photographer believes his neighbor is a murderer. Starring Jimmy Stewart and Grace Kelly.
* All movies are shown in large-screen digital projection, and start promptly at 6:30 pm.

Music in the Atrium: Join us in the Library Atrium for free concerts! All performances begin at 7 pm.
