EARLY LITERACY

Arts and Crafts

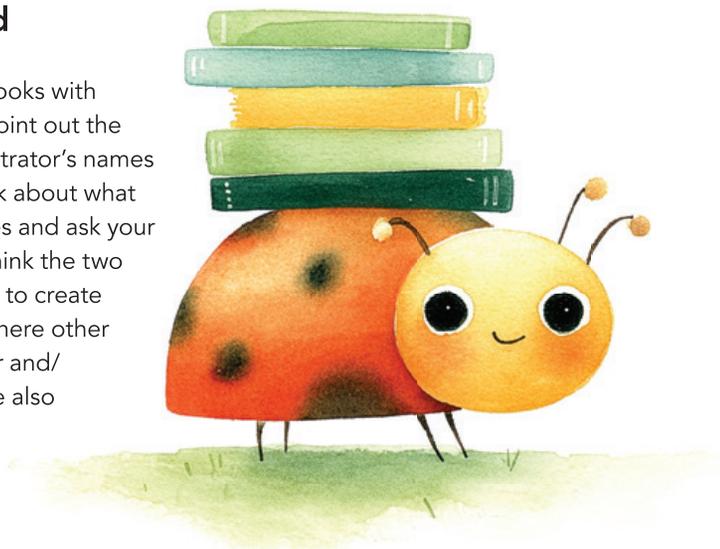

Completing arts and crafts together supports early literacy skills. Children learn new vocabulary and how to follow verbal directions while working with others on projects. Communication skills also improve when young learners talk about the process. Be sure to pick up a weekly craft kit in Youth Services for your next shared project!

Diversity

The 15th International Jazz Day takes place on April 30, hosted this year by Chicago and celebrated around the world! Celebrate with your child by listening and dancing to jazz, checking out a book about famous jazz musicians or the origins of jazz music, or trying some simple call and response scatting phrases like "shooby doo," "doo wop," or "bee bah."

Authors and Illustrators

When reading books with your little one, point out the author's and illustrator's names on the cover. Talk about what each person does and ask your child how they think the two worked together to create their book. Are there other books the author and/or illustrator have also completed?

Have you recently attended a library event? Share your experience with us at ghpl.org/feedback.

The library is wheelchair-accessible. Ramps and elevators provide access to the entire building. Walkers available. Library events may be photographed/filmed for promotion in library publications, website, or e-newsletters. Attendance automatically confers consent for your likeness to be used.
